Supervisor Travers Murphy stated that work session scheduled for next Wednesday, February 22nd, 2006 is cancelled.

Councilwoman Ackerman talked about the meeting that was held with the residents of Auckland Ave. regarding the buffering for the new Jim Ball project at the corner of Southwestern Blvd. & Mid County Drive. She feels that they came up with some good alternatives for buffering ideas that the residents will be happy with.

At this time a cart was rolled in by the Highway Superintendent with multiple folders on it, as well as the 1985 Master Plan document. Councilwoman Ackerman stated all the folders on the cart represent the basis of the Town's current Comprehensive Plan. Councilwoman Ackerman said that she and Supervisor Travers Murphy met with Andrew Reilly, of Wendell Duchscherer, the engineering firm who produced the 2002 Orchard Park Land Use Study, which is the basis of the new comprehensive plan. Mr. Reilly and his firm are working on the SEQR process required for adoption of the Land Use Study.

Supervisor Travers Murphy stated that they (Wendell Duchscherer & the Town Board) are putting together a more user friendly document to outline the 2002 Land Use Study which is the basis for the New Comprehensive Plan which is going to be put on a disc for anyone who wants a copy. She hopes that the citizens of Orchard Park will take the time to review and comment on the existing plans. Supervisor Travers Murphy stated that she is looking to have the residents' participation and "tons" of input into this project so that when the new Comprehensive Plan is adopted, it will reflect the wishes of the residents.

Councilman Jemiolo stated that the Town is going forward with the work on the new Master Plan project and he discussed some of the issues involved. He also thanked the residents of Auckland Ave. for taking the time to meet with members of the Town Board and discuss their issues with the new Jim Ball dealership.

BUSINESS FROM THE FLOOR

Marion Snyderman, 38 Woodview Court: Ms. Snyderman asked if there has been any new information regarding the flooding problem around Highland Ave. & Woodview. She also wanted to know if the Town and Village were working together to help alleviate the problems in that area.

Sue Cushman – 27 Hawthorne: Ms Cushman questioned the benefit for the part-time elected officials where they are credited with 240 sick days, payable at double time, when they leave or retire from Town Service.

Nick Taneff – 279 Summit Avenue: Mr. Taneff had questions regarding the Highland/Woodview flooding issues, the Tim Horton's request for a building permit on the corner of Abbott & Lake, and the placement of political signs during elections.

Jim Crow, 2 Creekside Drive: Mr. Crow wanted to know when the decision regarding the request to rezone land on Weiss Rd. is going to take place. He stated that there is still a lot of opposition to this project and wondered where this land area stood in regard to the 1985 master plan.

Anthony F. Lorenzetti, 24 Boldt Court: Mr. Lorenzetti stated that some of his neighbors have been receiving some "arm twisting" regarding the proposed volleyball court on Weiss Avenue and he finds this very unsettling. At this time, the residents are still opposed to the project and there is an even stronger base of people that are now opposed. He respectfully asks that the Town Board pay attention to what the residents want.

Robert Frantsits – 4270 California Road: Mr. Frantsits stated that he has lived in his house for 50 years, and for 47 of them he had no flooding problems. In the past three years, with the development of the industrial park, he has had problems. He wants this taken care of.
